Jack calls it a day

Mr. J. Fearn of 212 Rosliston Road, Stapenhill, recently played his last game for Rolleston Cricket Club.

He first played for Rolleston in 1932 against Marchington and it was fitting that his last game should also be against this club.

A spokesman for the Rolleston C.C. described Mr. Fearn as a courageous cricketer and an exemplary club member, who had devoted many hours of his time over many years working in the interest of the club.

It is to be hoped that both he and Mrs. Fearn — who has provided the club with many excellent teas — will continue their association with Rolleston C.C.

A presentation will be made to Mr. Fearn at the Rolleston Cricket Club's prizegiving evening in October.
